Call Marie Skłodowska-Curie Individual Fellowships (IF) 2017

The European Commission has recently published the call for Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions – Individual Fellowships, whose closing date is on 14/09/2017.

General Information
Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions (MSCA) aim to support the career development and training of researchers in any scientific discipline, through international and intersectoral mobility. Individual Fellowships, in particular, aim to support the best and most promising researchers by offering them the opportunity to acquire new knowledge and work on research in a European or extra UE context.

Eligibility criteria for researchers
Experienced researchers of any nationality with the following conditions may apply:
• Must have either a doctoral degree or at least 4 years full-time research experience;
• Must not have resided or carried out their main activity (research or study) in the Host Institution country for more than 12 months during the 3 years immediately prior to the submission deadline.

Researchers can apply for financial contribution jointly with the Host Institution, indicating the supervisor of that institution.

Individual Fellowships typologies:
• European Fellowships (EF): they support research and training periods (between 12 and 24 months) at an institution of a Member State or Associated Country. EF can be Standard, Career Restart Panel (at least 12 months of career break in research), Reintegration Panel (from a Third Country) and Society and Enterprise Panel (for research in the non-academic sector);
• Global Fellowships (GF): they consist of a research and training period (between 12 and 24 months) at a partner organisation in a Third Country, followed by a mandatory 12-month return period in an institution from a Member State or Associated country.

In both typologies the researcher may be seconded to an additional partner organisation, exclusively in a partner European institution, including in a different country from that of the HI and in the non-academic sector.
Financial Aspects

The financial support takes the form of a grant covering 100% of the action’s eligible costs, and specifically, of the following unit costs:

How to Express your Interest

As part of its mission to promote a research culture and an international research environment, Sapienza University of Rome invites eligible researchers to apply jointly with Sapienza for a Marie Skłodowska-Curie Individual Fellowship (IF).

If you have already collaborated with a Sapienza professor, please contact her/him directly, in order to consider submitting an IF joint proposal.

The International Research Office provides support services and technical assistance to researchers who are interested in submitting a proposal and, in particular: information related to the call, evaluation of the proposal idea, support in the drafting of the proposal, pre-screening of the proposal, support in the financial and administrative management of approved proposals.
