VISIT OF THE ALESSANDRINA
LIBRARY

The Library was founded in 1667 by Pope Alessandro VII in the Ancient Studium Urbis, designed by Francesco Borromini, in order to provide a new library for the University of Rome. In 1670 it was opened to the public with a collection of 35.000 volumes and a subject and authors catalogue.

Today the Library houses a comprehensive collection of books, periodicals, and non-print materials especially with literary and legal argument.
