Visit of the delegation from University of Kent (United Kingdom)

The aim of the visit is related to Kent University Master's programmes, regarding the acknowledgement of Sapienza's University Campus main Library. The academic visitors are also willing to network with their professional peers within the library service, in order to exchange experience, describe resources as well as discuss possible future collaboration.

The visit will end with a tour of the Campus, taking in the Classic Art Museum (alias The Gypsum Museum), as well as the architecture of Marcello Piacentini and the painting by Mario Sironi in Aula Magna.

Programme

2.30 pm, Senate Hall
