

First Level Master Course in MIGRATION AND DEVELOPMENT

- Interested candidates must submit their application for admission in one of the ways indicated below and in the Call for Applications. Contextually, the admission test fee should be paid as indicated in the announcement, under penalty of exclusion.
- The admission test fee must be paid even in the absence of a selection test.
- Pending the outcome of the allocation of INPS Executive scholarships, civil servants wishing to attend the Master's course by taking advantage of any INPS funding must also submit a regular application for admission by paying the access test fee within the deadlines established by the Call for Applications.
- After the deadline of the Call for Applications, the Master's Course referees start the selection and admission procedures, which end with the publication of the list/ranking of those admitted on the Sapienza web page dedicated to the Master's Course.
- The referees of the Master's Course will inform those admitted when the teaching activities begin.
- Those admitted are required to pay the enrolment fee by the deadline indicated below and as indicated in the Call for Applications, under penalty of exclusion. Only after completion of the first required payment (first instalment or single instalment of the enrolment fee), those admitted to the Master's Course will be duly enrolled for the academic year 2023-2024 at this University.
